‘igh’ Phoneme Spotter Story

A Midnight Snack

Dwight got up from his bed at midnight and went downstairs to get a snack.

When he got downstairs he looked at the clock. There was a BOING! from the clock. It was midnight.

The moonlight was high up. Dwight looked at the moon. There was a dark mark.

“It might be a monster,” Dwight said.

Dwight turned the light on and the mark went from sight.

Dwight took his snack and went back to bed. It was the perfect midnight snack.
